The Eternal speaks

I would like to note here that Robert Habeck and Annalena Baerbock should step down immediately. The same goes for Volodymyr Zelenskyy, who hasn't done it yet because he knows Ukrainians will never vote for him again!

And I tell to all you

Many believe and think they see me, although they do not even recognize themselves, let alone see through. The world is built on this ridiculousness of human overconfidence! But the invisible is BIGGER and reaches further than anything visible!

What remains at the end is a smile from the ETERNAL!

I thank all you in a friendly way for all your attention and greet all friends of enlightenment, light, truth, life, salvation and joy. YES, I greet all you as a lover, as a knower, as a seer and as a comprehensive one.

Love is ETERNAL, without More Love is without birth, without becoming and without death

Verily I bear witness to you

If the last generation goes with me, she will be the first!

So

No more sticking actions! Let the last action be the last!

In every NO lives a YES. The NO to a lie is the YES to the truth. The NO to existence is the YES to life. It is enough to know the NO to turn to the YES! Witnessing the NO reveals the knowledge in the YES! The more believable the NO, the more true the YES!

The NO to the way, opens the path!

I'm telling you

The true master teaches masters. He teaches winning, not fighting! But whoever worries only worries about their small, ugly ego! And only those who stand on earth do not fall from heaven.

And I ask for mediation

Determination

The cherry tree is getting dressed without question,
Dressed his bare tree trunk.
Not to hide, No;
He testifies to me that he is alive!

That I rejoice today and tomorrow,
Therein all value and meaning are secured.
Because what me greets today in bright white;
This bids me to taste tomorrow, red and sweet!

And truly I tell allyou

All You tomorrow is worth no more than you testify today!

Becoming means Having

What you become, owns you
What owns you, you have become
What you have become, you are not
What you are not, you can never become

What you are, this is not found in becoming,
What you have become, it will always die!

in, with and through

Gerhard olinczuk treustedt

The cherry tree was not born, has not become and will never die!

He is selfless and was before the world. He is not in the world, does not belong to the world and will never submit to the world!

And because the cherry tree is what it is, that is, without one self, without becoming and without having, therefore it will survive all of you and the world!

The cherry tree does not need artificial intelligence, becose this only proves that you are no longer in control of yourself, just as the cancer cell tumor does not recognize itself!

I ask all of you

What comes after the artificial intelligence? Can it get any more stupid than stupid?

Will those survive who that sticking his together to the earth?

After the turn of the era and its artificial intelligence, will the stickingtime come?!

You all don't even know how sick you are!

When people create an artificial intelligence, this means that they no longer trust their self-world structure, i.e. their system self-understanding. He admits that he doesn't trust himself to solve those given problems that he previously conceived and created with his "normal intelligence" of upbringing and education. He thus hopes that the artificial intelligence will be able to do what he is not capable of, so he trusts that artificial intelligence to do what his mind failed to do. YES, he turns to and entrusts himself to that "new or modern intelligence", which is rooted in his lack, i.e. actually in his own inferiority, i.e. nourished by his inner rot and has grown out of it. He therefore believes in fact that that intelligence, which truly suffers from a deep lack, that this intelligence can create a new, i.e. artificial, intelligence, that is superior to his inner rot and solves those problems that his self-intelligence has previously created, only to fail here.

This is tantamount to the situation where a cancer cell believes it is creating a cell that will solve its self-destruction problem.

I tell to all you what

Military armament means artificial intelligence. Every weapon testifies that the person responsible for it, that is, the one using it, is absolutely overwhelmed with solving the problems that he previously created himself. The armament testifies that all that named and available intelligence of that self-became human is not sufficient to achieve what HE now wants to enforce with his artificial intelligence, i.e. with armament and violence. He wants to achieve or preserve with artificial intelligence what his mind does not grant him, does not allow him, does not enable him, i.e. never opens up to him. And thus, this insane and rabid, turning-point intelligence-armament of the Economy truly believes that it has more content, more right, weight and credibility than that overbearing and normal titled intelligence that defines itself through stupidity.

Woe to you

Draindirt honors Draindirt and stays Draindirt

The highest accolade belongs to the deepest fall. Frank-Walter Steinmeier did not honor Angela Merkel, but himself. He thanked the former Chancellor for she had making him in the back room President of the Federal Republic. He honored her option, so to speak, which served him, and thus makes it clear that without her, he would not exist Just as the Pope imagines himself to be a saint, because he canonizes others. In every cesspool, the stench is always and ubiquitously loyal, this with or without a medal. That is out of habit!

Verily

The malicious-infamous war of the West against Russia, YES, this hopeless terror is indeed owed to the same intelligence that is responsible for the genocide of the Herero and Nama in Namibia at the beginning of the 20th century. It is about that satanic demon of the Judeo-Christian Occident, whose sworn ignorance still defines and determines that nefarious and mendacious alliance of Western megalomania as a closed colonial power, and so uses and abuses, the Ukraine as a loyal Trojan horse, to continue with their biblical colonization "grow and multiply and subdue the earth", and thus also willingly calculate and risk a comprehensive world war. The logic of the West actually believes in a final victory for artificial intelligence!

I urgently warn against that time turning point in the Berlin traffic light coalition, around the Grand Inquisitor and confidence godfather Olaf Scholz, as well as against all those truly tiresome psychopaths in his three-color game library whose intelligence is not even enough to recognize idiocy, i.e. to define themselves. By projection they understand annexation, reflection means commission or wages, loyalty means mobility, time turning point means dividend and seer is one spotlight!

The conditions in Germany and Europe will now deteriorate badly, to the point of being unbearable. Judaism and Christianity are mainly responsible for all global calamity. The God of the Bible is called Mammon and Jesus Christ is a religious cartoon character, like Superman. He will certainly not come down from heaven and dissolve the calamities on earth, as the the curse of the church proclaims. And it will be the Christians themselves who will torch the idol temples, not only to extinguish their hope forever with the righteous fire.
